EASY COMMUNICATION

Talking to us is talking to someone who recognizes your needs and speaks your language. If not literally, then at least figuratively. Your problem is our problem; whether it is of a technical or logistical nature. And if we cannot solve it, then we know someone who can. And rest assured that you get quick and to-the-point feedback.

COST EFFICIENT

Working with CORNERPOINT is running your spare parts replenishment in a cost-efficient and reliable way. One telephone call is all you need to make, to obtain price and availability, mode of packing, weight and dimensions as well as the various ways of shipping, complete with rates, transit times and so forth. And as Amsterdam airport is the biggest transit airport in Europe, your parts fly all over the world in no time. But of course you can have the parts delivered personally, if that is what you prefer.
