

As part of Finning International Inc., one of the world's largest dealers of Cat® equipment and power systems, the Finning marine power team has a proven track record in delivering and supporting the proven range of MaK engines for a diverse range of marine power markets and applications.

- Propulsion engines
- Auxiliary engines
- Marine generators
- Complete propulsion solutions

Choose Finning and you have access to a global network of dedicated marine engineers. Our full service includes detailed design, project management, commissioning, technical support, ongoing maintenance, parts supply and finance capabilities.

