GENERAL OVERVIEW

GENERAL OVERVIEW

Noske-Kaeser Klima Teknik was established in 2009 and since that time completed a number of projects. Several contracts have been signed in the recent years and execution of projects is on-going.

Noske-Kaeser Klima Teknik became Engie Axima Klima Teknik in 2020 and Equans Axima Klima Teknik (Equans Axima) in 2023.

Equans Axima provides comprehensive and customized engineering solutions according to internationally recognized industry standards and Noske Kaeser developed design software and tools.

Our engineering office is located in Maltepe/Istanbul to coordinate all kinds of HVAC projects and perform design, engineering and commissioning services.

Equans Axima is in a strong position to serve the marine industry.

GENERAL OVERVIEW

Equans Axima designs, builds and delivers highly customized air handling units, chilled water plants, provision cooling plants and NBC Protection equipment that satisfies the tough requirements of Navies around the world, in particular, in the fields of performance, size/shape, shock and vibration resistance, noise, operability and maintainability.

Equans Axima performs all kinds of HVAC calculations, drafting works and documentation relating with all the projects it carries out.

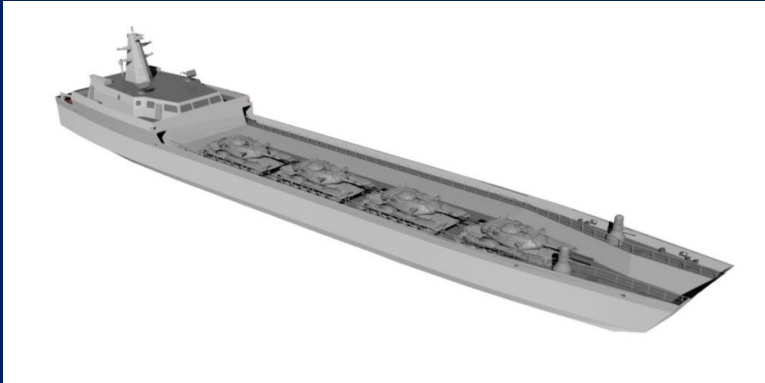

Equans Axima provides training, commissioning and maintenance works for all the systems delivered to the customers.
